Guardianship Topic of Attorney's Keynote at Ocean County Library 2025 Autism Resources Fair

TOMS RIVER – Guardianship and special needs planning will be the subjects of esteemed attorney Christine Matus's keynote address during the Ocean County Library's eighth annual Autism Resources Fair. Christine will speak in the Bishop Building of the OCL Toms River Branch, 2 PM Saturday, April 5.

The discussion will take place immediately following the Fair in the Toms River Branch, 10 AM until 2 PM. Bearing the theme "Spotlight on Children's Services," it will feature medical professionals, educators, therapists, attorneys and representatives of New Jersey state, county and municipal agencies, plus local and regional support groups and nonprofit organizations.

The founder of the Matus Law Group in Toms River and her associates take a compassionate approach to tailoring plans for families with special needs. As a parent of a special needs child, Christine understands the complexities of guardianship issues from both sides of the equation.

Seating for the keynote is limited, so please register at any branch, in person or by phone, or online at <https://tinyurl.com/OclARF> to attend this free program. No registration is required to attend the Autism Resources Fair in the OCL Toms River Branch. To see more details about the Fair and view our extensive resource databases, visit our online Autism Resources Center.

The Autism Resources Fair is sponsored by the Ocean County Library Foundation, a 501(c)(3) organization now in its 24th year of enhancing services and opportunities to all Library users. Members raise funds and seek grants to support non-traditional Library programs and services.

For more information, stop by the OCL Toms River Branch, 101 Washington Street, call (732) 349-6200 or visit the online Calendar of Events.

OCL turns 100 this year and you're why we're celebrating! See details on Facebook, Instagram, X, YouTube, Spotify, Pinterest and <https://theoceancountylibrary.org>.
